Doug Sombke Elected to Serve Sixth Term as South Dakota Farmers Union

HURON, S.D. - Doug Sombke was elected by the members of South Dakota Farmers Union to serve a sixth term during the organization's centennial convention held in Huron Dec. 9 and 10, 2015.

"I feel truly honored to serve the membership of this great organization - these are South Dakota's farmers, ranchers and rural citizens," explained Sombke, a fourth generation Conde crop and cattle farmer who has served as the organization's President since 2005.

Serving more than 17,000 family farmers, ranchers & rural citizens statewide as president of one of South Dakota's largest agriculture organizations, Sombke spends his days traveling across the state and nation advocating for family farms, ranches and rural communities, while his three now-grown sons manage the day-to-day farming operations of the family farm. All three sons also operate independent businesses which helps the farm sustain four families.

"It's the next generation of young farmers and ranchers who inspire me - our state's economic future rests in their hands because agriculture is our number one industry. They are the reason I put my all into this role each and every day," Sombke explains. "When I was first asked to serve as President 10 years ago, the timing could not have been better. My sons were ready to become more active on the farm."

Since becoming President 10 years ago, the organizations' membership numbers have soared, reaching a 20-year high of 17,000 in 2015.

"Membership numbers increased in nearly every county throughout South Dakota - this is a clear sign that our organization is not only strong, but growing," says Karla Hofhenke, S.D. Farmers Union Executive Secretary.

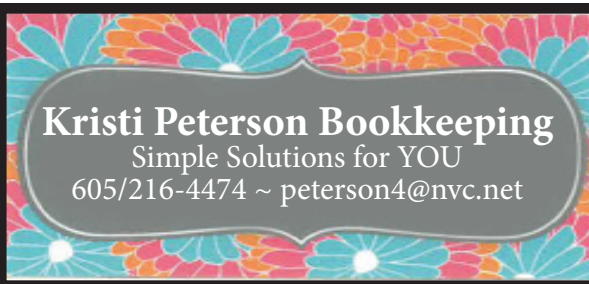

Hofhenke that as a grassroots organization, she and the rest of the state staff are led by Sombke and a board of agriculture producers. During state convention, three board members were also reelected. These members include; Wayne Soren, SDFU Vice President, Lake Preston; Jim Wahl, Salem; Lynn Frey, Lemmon; and Joel Keierleber, Colome.

Pray, Anderson win at Lamoure Tourney

Two Groton Area wrestlers went to the Lamoure Wrestling Tournament on Saturday and both came home as champions. "It was another great day for the Groton wrestlers at the Lamoure tournament this past weekend," said Coach Dana Dargatz.

"Trevor pray bumped up a weight class and did so in fashion defeating all of his opponents to claim the individual title, beating the #5 ranked wrestler in North Dakota 2-0," Dargatz said. Trevor wrestled at 126 pounds, pinning Riley Griffin of Mandan, 1:10, then he pinned Ethan Curruth of Ellendale-Edgeley-Kulm, 1:24, and in the championship match, he decisioned Darin Vangorkom of South Border, 2-0, scoring a two-point take-down in the second period.

"Brandyn Anderson kept on his winning ways also by winning the individual title as well, and wrestled a very smart and controlled championship match 7-1," Dargatz said.

Anderson, in heavyweight, pinned Riley Mattheis of Linton, in 43 seconds, then he pinned Travis Patterson of Bishop Ryan in 2:59, he pinned Seth Strong of Ellendale-Edgeley-Kulm, in 55 seconds, and in the championship match, he decisioned Lonnie Rodlund of Tiospa Zina, 7-1.

"I'm very pleased with how things went this weekend," Dargatz said. "We wrestled very smart, stayed in great position the whole day and the boys' efforts showed. It's really nice to see them performing so well this early in the year." Groton Area will be at the Northeast Conference Tourney next Saturday at Milbank. It starts at 11 a.m.

Smith Thank You

To the individuals and families who contributed to our "Bridal Shower Box" at Lori's Pharmacy, Thank you so much for your generous gifts! Shane and I received many beautiful kitchen décor and serving dishes, as well as some bake and cookware. We are very excited to begin setting up our home together and have such wonderful things! I truly enjoyed being able to explain to my future in-laws the generosity of my community as I opened the gifts! They were amazed at the close-knit family and friends that I have had the privilege of being surrounded with during my time in Groton. I can only hope that the future communities Shane and I make our home in are half as welcoming as my childhood home!

Thank you so much,
Marah Smith
