Annual Christmas Gift to be Presented in Groton

The Groton Christian & Missionary Alliance Church will once again, as part of its 20th anniversary celebration, be presenting their annual Christmas gift to the Groton area, "We're Glad You Came", a Christmas cantata, along with a children's musical Christmas sharing preceding a Turkey & dressing/Ham banquet on Sunday evening December 17, beginning at 5:00 pm. to which the public is invited.

The Groton congregation, located at 706 N. Main Street first began sharing an annual Christmas musical with the banquet to introduce themselves to the Groton community within months of its opening in October, 1997. The congregation so appreciated the response of the community to the Christmas celebration that they began doing this annually. The whole congregation participates in one way or another, by roasting the turkeys or baking the hams, providing the mashed potatoes & gravy, vegetables, salads and desserts, volunteering in the setting up, serving, tearing down, singing, acting, or building of sets, whatever is necessary to provide an experience that will bless and encourage the celebration of our Savior's birth. Being such a joy to share, it is the hope of the congregation that we all will also realize that this Savior's coming is REALLY the Reason for the Season. We are celebrating the Birth of our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ.

Members of the choir that will be presenting the musical program "We're Glad You Came" are Linda Bahr, Rick Buhler, Nancy Cutler, Bill Duncan, Mike & Joanne Ehresmann, Adam Franken, Sophie Hughes, Deb Jacobs, Sarah Jacobs, Kara Jetto, Larry & Glenna Remington, Lars & Darinda Tunby, Krista Tunby, and Sierra Tunby. The children's Kids' Club musical portion of the evening will include Sierra, Christian, and Bentley Ehresmann, Grayson and Quenton Flores, Danielle Franken, Rylie, Brad, and Bentley Harms, Suri, David, Kierea, and Raziah Jetto, Brady Johnson, Logan, Zoe, and Presley Olson, and Nathan Unzen. The Christmas program is under the direction of Carrie Olson.

Come join our church family for an evening of rejoicing on Sunday, December 17th, beginning at 5 pm at 706 N. Main Street in Groton, just across the street from the city park.

Weekly Vikings Roundup

By Jordan Wright

The Minnesota Vikings traveled to Charlotte riding an eight-game win streak and had a chance to lock up the NFC North with a win against the Panthers. The Vikings would have also locked up the division with losses by both the Green Bay Packers and Detroit Lions. Unfortunately for the Vikings, none of those things happened on Sunday.

There were plenty of reasons that the Vikings didn't play well on Sunday, but it really all started up front along the offensive line. The problems started before the opening kickoff when rookie center Pat Elflein was ruled out of the game with a shoulder injury. His absence forced left guard Nick Easton to play center and Jeremiah Sirles to come off the bench to play left guard. Combined with the continued absence of right tackle Mike Remmers, the Vikings had three offensive linemen playing out of position. The mid-game injury to left tackle Riley Reiff was the icing on the cake, and at that point it didn't matter what the Vikings did, it was nearly impossible to overcome those disadvantages.

Case Keenum did not have a good game, which was directly related to the offensive line woes. He threw for 280 yards, but it took him 44 pass attempts to get there (a measly 6.36 yards per attempt). Keenum produced two touchdowns, but he also threw two interceptions, fumbled the ball once, and took six drive-stalling sacks. This loss isn't entirely on Keenum, as the offensive line had their worst game of the season, but he is clearly unable to overcome obstacles and put the team on his back when it's needed the most.

To make matters worse, the Vikings were unable to get much going in the run game against the Panthers. They were forced to throw the ball so much, they were only able to run the ball 21 times. They managed to produce 100 yards on those 21 carries (4.8 yards per carry), but it wasn't enough to keep the offense balanced, which allowed Carolina to pin their ears back on defense and get after the quarterback.

With the offense struggling, the Vikings defense was needed to put the clamps down and keep this game within reach. Unfortunately, they were unable to do that on Sunday. For the first time all season, the Vikings defense gave up a 100-yard rusher, with Jonathan Stewart rushing for 103 yards on 16 carries. The Panthers as a team had 216 rushing yards, which allowed them to control the game and keep the Vikings offense off the field. The Vikings defense limited Cam Newton to only 137 passing yards, one touchdown and one interception, but Newtown was able to put the game away with a 62-yard scramble in the fourth quarter.

At the end of the day, the Vikings are still 10-3 and are in great position leading into the playoffs. The Carolina Panthers are a tough team to beat, especially in their home stadium, and the Vikings found that out the hard way. If the Vikings' offensive line was at full strength, I'm sure the game would have been much closer – but injuries are part of the game and must be overcome, which didn't happen on Sunday. Both the offense and the defense played sub-par, and the Vikings are no longer the number one seed in the NFC as a result.

Looking ahead, the Vikings return home and will take on the Cincinnati Bengals on Sunday, December 17. The game will start at noon central time and will be shown on CBS. ESPN has the Vikings as heavy favorites in the game, giving them an 81% chance to win. The Bengals are 5-8 this season and will be coming off an embarrassing 33-7 loss to the Chicago Bears. If the Vikings can shut down Bengals wide receiver A.J. Green, the Vikings should have no problem winning this game. Skol!

SDCUC Board Nominations Open

The South Dakota Corn Utilization Council (SDCUC) is a progressive organization which has visionary and influential producer leadership throughout the state. The 9-member board manages and invests South Dakota's 1-cent per bushel corn checkoff fund.

The SDCUC is announcing director positions that are open in Districts 3 and 5. A SDCUC director's position consists of a three-year term beginning on March 1, 2018. Each director can serve a maximum of two terms, resulting in a six-year director's position.

If interested in seeking a board seat in one of the open districts, you must obtain and file with the corn office a nominating petition. All nominating petitions must contain at least 15 "participating" corn producer signatures from your district. (A "participating" corn producer has not requested a refund of his/her corn assessment since January of 2017). Eligible candidates who wish to seek a director's position cannot have requested a checkoff refund from the SDCUC since January of 2013. Nominating petitions must be returned back to the SDCUC office by 5 p.m. on January 5, 2018.

To request a petition please contact the SDCUC office in writing at 4712 South Technopolis Drive, Sioux Falls, SD 57106 or call 605-334-0100.

If more than one nominating petition is received by the SDCUC office for any district, a special election will be conducted for that district. The elections will be held January 29-February 2, 2018 at the local extension offices in those counties.

The counties assigned to the districts accepting nominations for director positions are detailed below:

- District 3 - Brookings, Codington, Deuel, Hamlin & Kingsbury
- District 5 - Brown, Campbell, Corson, Harding, McPherson, Perkins & Walworth
